Our privacy commitment to you

Let's grow your dreams together!

Grow your savings and your legacy.

GBU's annuities offer competitive earnings and flexible options to meet your needs. GBU offers permanent and term life insurance policies to protect your legacy for the ones who matter in your life.

Belong to a great organization that offers benefits for your entire family.

Automatic life insurance for your newborn child, scholarships and grants for your teens and discounts and educational opportunities for you. GBU offers excellent benefits for every stage of your life. GBU also hosts events and activities so that you can meet fellow GBU members in your community.

Uphold what's important to you.

GBU supports you in giving back to the organizations that you care about. GBU will help support the charities where you volunteer your time through our One Hour at a Time program. GBU also offers volunteer opportunities, interest groups and special programs to support what matters to you.

We value you as a member and take your personal privacy seriously. We have established policies, procedures and safeguards to protect the information you have given us and to limit how the information is shared. This document describes what information we collect, and how we use and protect it.
Information we may collect

“Nonpublic information” means personally identifiable personal, financial and medical information about you that we obtain in connection with providing a product or service to you.

Types of information we may collect and how we gather it:

- Information we obtain from your application. You provide us with most of the information we need as part of the application process.
- Information we obtain from third parties. The kind of information we may gather depends on the type of policy or contract, but may include medical reports, claims reports, credit reports and motor vehicle reports.
- Information about transactions and experiences. Your file may contain information we develop and maintain, such as your payment history, underwriting and claim documents.

How we use your information

We use customer information to underwrite your policies, process your claims, ensure proper billing, service your policies and offer you other GBU products that we believe may suit your needs.

We do not disclose nonpublic information about you with anyone, except as permitted or required by law or as you may authorize.

GBU has no affiliated financial institutions or third-party nonaffiliates that have access to your nonpublic information, except as permitted or required by law or as you may authorize.

We afford prospective and former members the same protections as existing members with respect to the use of nonpublic information.

How we protect your information

We maintain physical, electronic and procedural safeguards to protect the information we collect about you. Access to such information is restricted to individuals who need it in order to service your policy or provide products and services to you, and who are trained in the proper handling of such information. Employees who violate these confidentiality requirements are subject to our disciplinary process.

We contractually require any person or organization providing products or services to GBU members on our behalf to adhere to the same strict standards of confidentiality.

It is important that the information we maintain about you is complete, up-to-date and accurate. You may contact us to access, as provided by law, information included in your file. If you believe any of our information about you is incorrect, please notify us in writing so that we can update this information.
