Do You Know a GBU Member Who Provides Outstanding Volunteer Service?
Consider telling his/her story by submitting this special member's nomination for the 2019 Volunteer of the Year Award.

Purpose
The GBU Volunteer of the Year Award recognizes an individual from the GBU membership who, through example and accomplishment, provided outstanding volunteer service to his/her local GBU district or community during 2019.

The award serves as an excellent opportunity for the individual to be recognized for his/her volunteer work, leadership and accomplishments.

Eligibility
• The nominee must be a GBU member in good standing (hold an active life insurance or annuity policy) and must be living at the time of selection.
• GBU Home Office staff and other individuals compensated by GBU as employees are not eligible.
• Nominees of ANY age are eligible.
• The Volunteer of the Year Award can be won only once by any individual.

Guidelines
• Complete the GBU Volunteer of the Year Nomination form which can be obtained by calling the Fraternal Department (800-765-4428), emailing us (info@gbu.org) for an application or by getting the information off of GBU’s website (www.gbu.org, on the right side bar).
• All nomination forms must be postmarked by Friday, February 28, 2020. Incomplete entries or entries postmarked after the deadline will not be considered.

Awards
The recipient of this prestigious award will receive a beautifully engraved plaque, a $1,000 donation to the volunteer’s 501(c)3 charity, an engraved leaf on GBU’s Fraternal Tree, in addition to recognition in The Reporter.
